

A <ul style="list-style-type: none">* Break three eggs into a bowl* Add some salt and pepper and a tablespoonful of milk* Beat the eggs with a fork until the yolks and whites are well mixed.* Heat the butter in a shallow pan.	B When strong winds blow on to a sandy beach, the sand is piled up into dunes. These can be 30 metres high. The wind moves the dunes inland.!
C Herring Gull The most common large British gull, found all round the coast. Nests on all kinds of coast, and in winter often comes inland to feed.	D Suddenly a door banged. Aishat noticed a shape slip swiftly into the darkened corner. She froze! What could that be? Aishat could hear Abdul and Ameena through the window as they sat chatting on the grass but she dared not move.
E When dawn broke the sailors saw a small island ahead of them. Columbus steered a course towards the island and gave instructions for some of the crew to disembark.	F Dear Sir Last Friday evening, I had dinner at your restaurant. The waiter who served us was very slow. When the food finally arrived it was cold.
G Anne Frank was a Jewish girl, born June 12, 1929, and lived through the time that Hitler was ruling Germany. Her family escaped to the Netherlands, to start a new life where they could do what they wanted.	H Although many people would not agree, I would like to argue that lots of homework is good for children of all ages. My first reason is that brains need lots of practice to grow so the more work the brain gets, the better.